EMERGENCY PLAN

are made when placed into a violent situation:

- Evacuate the area by the quickest means possible and get distance and object between you and where you just left.
- Locate and lock yourself into any sort of office, closet or storage room.
- Barricade doors, turn off lights and make the location appear unoccupied.
- Hide in, under or behind desks, appliances and large fixtures.
- Make yourself as small as possible and try to remain calm.
- As a last resort, and only when you life is in imminent danger take action against the shooter:
 - Acting aggressively as possible against
 - Throwing items and improvising weapons
 - Yelling
 - Committing to your actions
- If you feel it is safe, call 911 and provide information.
- If unsure of the situation, turn OFF the phone, iPad or other devices that may ring.
- Remember help is on the way.

Events of this sort will feel like a lifetime, be patient, wait and listen for specific instructions from the Law Enforcement authorities entering the area.

Do NOT assume it is safe-wait for the official word.

This is an extremely confusing time for everyone; Law Enforcement needs to be absolutely sure of who is who. Do exactly as you are told.
